

Job Posting 9.10.21

Action for Equity—Jobs Action Network
Organizer-in-Training Fellowships

- Do you want a way in to a leadership role in today’s movement? Want to talk to your community, your family and friends about good jobs?
- Want a seat at the table where we have power to win the good jobs we need? Want to be part of creating the table? Want to pull back the curtain and see what is really going on?
- Want an opportunity to show why you matter and why your friends matter?

$23/hour, 10-17 hours per week, schedule to be worked out, minimum 4 months

6 Organizer-in-Training Fellows to be hired, including one social media/communication specialist

Work directly for Tarshia Green-Williams, leading organizer and national organizing trainer

Our formal training program will include working in teams, daily collective debriefing, skills training along with shadowing, mentoring, participatory research, leading your own neighborhood groups, learning more about your community and other communities, regular “liberation school” covering history, policy, and meetings with leaders from our communities.

Want to hear more? Want to find out more? Any friends who are interested too?

Get in touch with me to set up a time to talk that works for you.

Text me or email.

Tarshia Green-Williams, tarshia@action4equity.org, 857-266-3559